Catalog Description:

Major in Dance Management: This major is interdisciplinary in nature, although the majority of course work lies within the discipline of dance. The purpose of this degree program is to prepare the student for a career in the management of a small private dance school. This major is not recommended for anyone preparing for graduate study in dance since it does not require the entire dance core curriculum. The major requires 33-45 hours in the dance component, 24 hours in the business component, and 9 hours in the psychology component, for a total of 66-78 hours.
