 SSN _____

Catalog Description:

Major in Music (Concentration in Music and Liberal Arts): This concentration is designed for the student who would like to further his or her background in music without specific preparation for a graduate degree in music, and for a student who wishes to consider pursuing two separate majors. Within this concentration, two options are available: (1) a general program which does not include a recital, but which does require the student to pass a performance proficiency examination in the primary performance area prior to graduation, and the successful completion of Applied Music 499A before the faculty in lieu of a public half recital, and (2) a performance-oriented option which includes the successful completion of Applied Music 499A or 499B. The student must continue taking applied instructions up to and including the time of the recital if the second option is chosen. The choice of option is made by the student in consultation with the music faculty.

Major requirements are 45 hours, including: Music 107, 108, 109, 110, 201, 202, 205, 206, 207 (non-keyboard primary performance area), 208 (keyboard primary performance area), 210, 311, 312, 316, 317; Applied Music - 8 hours of studio instruction in the primary performance area, 149 in the primary performance area each semester the student is taking studio instruction, 151 each semester of attendance up to 8 hours of satisfactory completion, music ensemble each semester of full-time enrollment with a minimum of 8 hours for credit (vocal and instrumental in the primary performance area) and 499A.
